Important Items Regarding the Course of Study.

1. Graduates of colleges approved by the College and University Council of Pennsylvania, who also desire a State Normal Certificate may obtain it after one year's residence and a successful passing of the examinations of the Senior year and those in the other pedagogical subjects of the course.
2. Students who have completed one year's work in a college approved by the Council may with the consent of the State Superintendent be admitted to the Senior Class of a State Normal School, conditioned in any subjects in which they are not satisfactorily certificated by their college or high school.
3. Next year Zoology will be in the third, and Civil Government in the second year of the course.
4. German or French may be substituted for Latin in the first or second years of the course, as well as in the third and fourth years.
5. Graduates of the three year course are credited toward the four year course with the branches required in that course which they have completed in the three year course.

6. At the discretion of the Faculty high school graduates may be excused from doing over any academic work in the four years, satisfactorily done in the high school, excepting the review subjects of the third and fourth years.

7. It may surprise many of our readers to know that the abolition of the State Board Examination was the subject of a carefully prepared paper at the November meeting of the Board of Principals, and that after an earnest discussion, Superintendent N. C. Schaffer suggested that each Principal take up the subject with his faculty, with the alumni and with others concerned and bring the result of this study to the next regular meeting. We shall be glad to hear from you upon the subject.

Concerning the Quarterly.

It may be well to state again the present purpose and intentions of the QUARTERLY. It is published for the sole purpose of keeping our former students informed concerning the activities and achievements of their former schoolmates, and incidentally concerning the affairs of the school itself. It is desired that the paper shall reach every former student and teacher of the school wherever located. If any are not receiving the paper it is because the business office of the school is not in possession of the proper addresses. No subscription charge is made for the publication. If you are not on our mailing list kindly let us know and we shall be pleased to add your name. When you change your location please send us information concerning your new address. Any information concerning your own and former schoolmates' activities will be accorded a hearty welcome by the Alumni Editor. Let us hear from you occasionally.

The QUARTERLY desires to hear from all Alumni of the institution. Please consider this a personal invitation to let us know all about yourself and all you can tell us concerning your classmates. Address all communications for this department to G. E. Wilbur, Lock Box No 203.

William L. Chase, professor of History and Civics at the Normal School in 1908-1909, was married on Tuesday, Dec. 2nd, in Brooklyn, N. Y. to Miss Maybel E. Farrington of that city. They will

Miss Elizabeth Dorchester, teacher of voice and public school music, resigned the position to take effect at the close of the Fall term, and is now teaching in the schools of Brooklyn, N. Y.

Mrs. Katherine Louise Larrabee, formerly custodian of the library at the Normal School, was quietly married to Chester E. Watrous of Montrose, at her home there at 8 o'clock Monday evening. Rev. F. A. Allen, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, performed the ceremony, in the presence of three or four close friends, who were to keep the marriage a secret until the following day.

On Tuesday afternoon, in response to invitations, issued some days before, about fifty ladies of town were guests of the bride at her home "The Evergreens," Mrs. M. F. Day of Montrose, who assisted in receiving the guests, introduced each in turn to "Mrs. Chester F. Watrous."

The guests were entirely taken by surprise. In the midst of a dinner that followed, Mrs. Watrous excused herself, and a short time afterward, Mrs. Day announced to the guests that Mr. and Mrs. Watrous had departed on their wedding trip, the groom having driven off with his bride while the guests were still at dinner. Mrs. Day took the role of hostess, and the merriment continued for some time.

Mrs. Larrabee has been active in the social life of the town, and has been active in the Presbyterian Church and in the King's Daughters' work there. Mr. Watrous is a well known business man of the town, and a member of the firm of Kent and Watrous. He was a law partner of his wife's late husband.

Mrs. Watrous was for several years custodian of the library at the Normal School.

Miss Blanche Kells who taught as an assistant in Physical Training during the years 1902-1903, and now of Sauk Centre, Minn., is about to move to Los Angeles, Cal. She will endeavor to secure a position in the public schools of California.

'67, Waller--Elwell--Unangst. Purely by chance, the first reunion for many years of the Normal's first graduating class occurred in the Bloomsburg National Bank yesterday. Dr. D. J. Waller, Jr., and G. E. Elwell of town, and Charles Unangst of New York City, comprise the class. Mr. Unangst, who is visiting in town, and Dr. Waller had gone into the bank on business and were there when Mr. Elwell entered a moment later. Although all have met frequently, the three have not met together for many years.

They were members of the class of '67 of the Bloomsburg Literary Institute, which became the Normal School in 1869. After their graduation, the class took up subscriptions for the bell which now hangs in the Normal tower.—Morning Press Dec. 31.

'71, Ailman, Jerome T., died at his home near Thompsontown, Juniata county, Tuesday night, Nov. 18th. Mr. Ailman was 64 years old and is survived by his wife, two sons and two daughters; by his mother, who is ninety-two years old, and also by two sisters. The funeral was held on Saturday afternoon, Nov. 22, at Center, Pa. Mr. Ailman was representative from Juniata county in the Pennsylvania State Legislature in the session of 1911. For many years he had been prominent in the work of the State Grange, and was one of the progressive farmers of the state.

'79, Breece, Hannah. We clip the following, a portion of an article appearing in the Daily Sentinel, Dec. 16:

"Mrs. Charles E. Kesty received a wireless message from her sister, Miss Hannah Breece, dated at Fort Fairbanks, December 15th, which contained twelve words and conveyed the welcome news of her safe arrival there after a twenty-five day trip from her home in Fort Yukon, most of which was spent in incredible hardship on a dog-team sled.

The distance which this message traveled was over 7,000 miles, and its delivery within the circuit of the day upon which it was sent, amplifies the marvel of the wireless, which we hear so much about, but benefits of which to some extent are prescribed from us, on account of our geographical location."

'80, Mears, Dr. D. W., and wife, sailed from New York, Saturday, January 10, on the Adriatic of the White Star line for Egypt where they will remain for several months.

'85, Jacoby, (Miller) Maggie (sp. c.) died at her home in West Pittston, Oct. 30th. She was buried at Bloomsburg, Sunday, Nov. 1st. Mrs. Miller was about fifty years of age. She is survived by her husband and two sons Edward and Robert. Announcement was made in the October QUARTERLY of the death of Mrs. Lenore Jacoby McKelvy, a sister of Mrs. Miller.

'87, Smith, K. Maude, Principal of the Model School and Critic Teacher, is again in her accustomed place as cheery and as aggressive as ever. For several weeks she was seriously ill and in the hospital at Hazleton. While she has not fully regained her former health and vigor she is steadily making progress thereto. The QUARTERLY congratulates her as well as the school.

'88, Bucke, W. Fowler, is the Superintendent of the Training School, and at the head of the Department of Pedagogy in the State Normal School at Geneseo, N. Y. At the last meeting of the New York State Teachers' Association he was president of the Normal and Training Class Section of the Association. Dr. Bucke is a success.

'88, Major, Lucy and M. Almira Major, '90. The Normal School Library has been enriched by the gift of 112 volumes, valued at several hundred dollars, through the bequest of the Misses Lucy and Almira Major. The collection which contains many beautiful bindings is known as the Mrs. J. H. Poole's memorial to the Misses Major.

'94, Dentler, William (sp. c.) died at his home in Bloomsburg, Tuesday morning, November 11. He was stricken with apoplexy and lived only a short time after the attack. He was thirty-nine years of age.

'99, Wallace, Marguerite, three years ago while studying art at the College of the City of New York to become a supervisor in the public schools accidentally visited a class in Palmer Penmanship and there learned that A. N. Palmer was a real reformer of penmanship in the public schools of the country. She took up the work, and secured a diploma, and at Mr. Palmer's request held conferences in the schools of New York City, giving lectures and model lessons to the teachers. She also gave a course in Mrs. Scoville's finishing school on Fifth avenue. On account of her health she was obliged to decline an offer to lecture to the Brooklyn Teachers' Educational Association twice a week for a year. Her post office address now is Fisher's Island, N. Y.

'99, Fortune, Arthur, is now located at Chicago. He spent a day of December in Bloomsburg, prior to starting on a business trip to the Pacific coast.

'99, Dennis, Lindley, is achieving distinction as a state expert in agricultural education. He is enthusiastic over the work that is being accomplished by Charles McBride, '06 (sp. c.) agricultural agent for the Mercer County Farm Bureau.

'00, Whitaker, James B, one of Shenandoah's representative young men met with injuries late in August, while horseback riding which resulted in his death the same evening at the State Hospital, Fountain Springs, Pa. He sustained a compound fracture of the thigh bone and probably internal injuries, he suffered severely from the shock. Mr. Whitaker was a teller in the Merchants National Bank and was one of the most popular young men in the city. He was a prominent member of the Knights of Columbus and at the time of his death held the office of Grand Knight. The funeral was one of the most largely attended ever held in Shenandoah. Interment was in the Annunciation cemetery.

'00, Lins, Olive A., is a book-keeper with a firm in Cleveland, Ohio, and is doing well. Her address is 1277 Thoreau Road, Lakewood, Ohio.

'01, Merrill, Charles C., is now a traveling salesman for the Welch Grape Juice Company. His territory includes the Eastern half of Georgia and the state of South Carolina. He likes the position very much. His address is 410 Rhode's Building, Atlanta, Ga.

'01, Owen, Minnie and Mr. J. Warren Geist, quietly left Mount Carmel, December 10th, on the 6:44 a. m. Reading train, went to Schuylkill Haven, where in the Evangelical Church Rev. F. S. Longsdorf pronounced the words that made them man and wife. A wedding breakfast was served at the home of the pastor after which they left on an extended wedding tour. They will reside in Mount Carmel where Mr. Geist is in the grocery and green truck business.

'01, Worthington, Kathryn P. (sp. c.) On Christmas evening at 7 o'clock Miss Kathryn Worthington was married to Mr. Clyde Kemp. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's grandparents, Dr. and Mrs. I. W. Willits, Bloomsburg, by Dr. D. J. Waller, Jr. They will reside in Bloomsburg where the groom is a member of a prominent shoe firm.

'01, Taylor (Marshall) Annie, has become a singer of considerable note. She has been studying and singing abroad for several years. She is making a concert tour with her husband, who is a fine artist, before making final arrangements with the Metropolitan Grand Opera Company of New York for her American debut in Grand Opera Company sometime during the present year. She sings under the name of Mme Soriat. Her address is 206 N. 65th Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

'01, McHenry, Dr. Victor A. (sp. c.) and Mrs. Lillian L. Gros-ser, were quietly married at six o'clock in the morning, December 17th, in the Church of Christ parsonage on Carey Avenue, Wilkes-Barre, Pa. The ceremony was conducted by the pastor, Rev. C. H. Frick. Dr. McHenry is one of Wilkes-Barre's successful dentists. They are at home in the Cumberland Apartments, Wilkes-Barre.

'01, Keller (Ritter) Edith. Cards have been received announcing the arrival at Huntington, W. Va., of Verus Taggart Ritter, Jr., October 25th, 1913.

'03, Hagenbuch, Rea I., has a ranch of 150 acres in Nevada and announces that he is "coming along finely." He also devotes part of his time to employment as a Government forest ranger. The nearest town in one direction is 90 miles away, while in the other direction the nearest town is 100 miles away. He doesn't get there very often. He visited Bloomsburg for a short time in January.

'03, Schweppenheiser, Nellie (Music C.) became the bride of Samuel K. Worman, of Danville, in a simple ceremony performed in their new home in Danville Wednesday afternoon, December 24th. Rev. S. B. Bidlack, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church of Espy, the bride's pastor, officiated.

Mr. Worman is employed as a mechanic in the works of the Danville Stove Company.

'04, Miller, Imogene, (sp. c.) The Morning Press of Dec. 18th, has the following:

"From Philadelphia comes the word that a marriage license was issued yesterday in Philadelphia to William L. Butler and Miss Cora Imogene Miller, both of Bloomsburg and both very well and favorably known.

Miss Miller, the daughter of Charles W. Miller, Esq., left several days ago for Media to visit her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer E. Melick, and news of the issuance of the marriage license comes as no surprise to relatives, as it was known the ceremony would take place at this time. Mr. Butler, who has been employed as civil engineer by the State Highway Department for some years has been located in Bloomsburg during the greater part of that time.

The telegram stating the marriage license had been issued also contained the information that the couple would be married by the bride's former pastor, the Rev. Dr. G. H. Hemingway, of Camden, N. J., and formerly of Bloomsburg.

Upon their return the bride and groom will make their home on South Market street.

'04, Dollman, Harry, is pastor of a large congregation of the Lutheran denomination at Pine Grove, Pa.

'04, Wagner, Virginia. Cards have been received announcing the marriage December 23rd, at Saint Paul, Minn., of Virginia Pearl Wagner, to William Anderson Powers. No particulars given.

'05. Traxler, William E. The Wilkes-Barre Record of Jan. 7, says:

"The announcement of the engagement of Miss Ruth Walton Multer of Kingston to Prof. William E. Traxler of Wyoming Seminary was made at a tea given yesterday afternoon by Miss Harriet Murdock to a number of their friends in the Seminary parlors. Miss Multer is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Multer of 285 College avenue, Kingston, and Prof. Traxler is teacher of sciences at the Seminary.

'05, House, Mae B., was married, November 17th, to John C. Knittle of Catawissa, in a ceremony that was beautiful in its simplicity and which was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Bloomsburg, at 7 o'clock in the morning. Rev. F. O. Musser, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, officiated.

The ceremony took place before a bank of ferns, while a beautiful decoration of white and yellow chrysanthemums and ferns was carried out throughout the parlor and dining room. They reside in Catawissa where for some time Mr. Knittle has been conducting a successful automobile business.

'05, Brooke, Walter S., (Coll. P.) and Miss LaVere Robbins '06 (Coll. P.) were married Tuesday, December 9th. The wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents in Bloomsburg, Rev. S. C. Dickson, pastor of the Presbyterian church officiating.

The bride is well known and highly esteemed among the young people of town. Mr. Brooke has won recognition as an illustrator, and is at present in charge of the Copy Department and art work of the Street Railways Advertising Company, of New York City. They will make their home in New York City.

'06, Buddinger, Lulu. Announcement has been given of the marriage of Lulu Pauline Buddinger to Mr. Robert Mershon on Wednesday, December 17th, at Mount Carmel, Pa.

'07, Anstock, (Holt) Pearl. We find in a local paper Dec. 8th:

"A nine pound daughter was born recently to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Holt, of Hawthorne, N. J. Mrs. Holt was formerly Miss Pearl Anstock, daughter of Mrs. Fannie Anstock of West Main street.

'08, Row, Hazel F., was married to J. Clarence Creasy of Cabin Run in a beautiful home ceremony at 8 o'clock in the evening Wednesday, June 26th. After an elaborate wedding supper the happy couple went by auto. to Wilkes-Barre where they took train for an extended bridal trip. They are at home in the handsome new house the groom built at Cabin Run.

'08, Solleder, Albert, (Coll. P.) is connected as civil engineer with the government construction of dams in the Mississippi river. He is located near Little Hocking, Ohio.

'08, Mercer, Irene, (Coll. P.) is occupying a position as an assistant librarian in the Carnegie library at Pittsburgh.

'09, Sitler, J. Wesley and Jennie I. Kline, '07 of Orangeville were married at the home of the bride's brother, Daniel Kline in Wilkes-Barre, Saturday, September 27th, at 4 o'clock, Dr. D. J. Waller, Jr., officiating. Prof. and Mrs. D. S. Hartline and son Keffer attended the wedding. Mr. Sitler is an instructor in the Science department in the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor. They reside at 821 E. Washington street.

'09, Ikeler, Kenneth, graduated last June at State College, and received through merit work a scholarship, valued at $500, at the Iowa State University.

'09, Mather, Ray, was valedictorian of this year's graduating class at Williams College. The honor also carries with it a $500 scholarship at Harvard for post-graduate work, or a position as instructor in history at Williams.

'09, Acor, Stewart, and Miss Jessie Shipman, of Sunbury, were married at Atlantic City on July 3rd, 1913. They kept their secret for a month. Mr. Acor is a member of the faculty of the State Normal School at Clarion, where they reside.

'09, Fisher, Scott, was married sometime during the summer of 1913, but when, where or to whom has not been divulged to the Alumni editor.

'09, Matz, Robert L., is teaching history at Bloomfield, N. J. In 1912 he taught the same subject in an Academy at Woodstock, Va.

'09, Knapp, Jeannie S. Mrs. Clara Knapp has announced the engagement of her daughter Jeannie to Mr. Lester R. Ames, a civil engineer, of Medina, N. Y.

'09, Ash, Elmer E., (Business C.) We take the following from the Daily Sentinel, Bloomsburg, Dec. 8th:

"Columbia county friends of 'Shorty' Ash, formerly of Benton, and employed for several years past in the Citizens' Bank of Buffalo, N. Y., will be interested to learn of the announcement of the engagement of Miss Charlotte E. L. Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gideon J. Martin, of Buffalo, to Mr. Ash.

'10, Schooley, Kate, and Mr. Karl Stock were married at the home of the bride's parents, May 28th, by Rev. W. D. Lathrop. Only the immediate families were present. The bridegroom is a prosperous young business man of Kingston, Pa., being a member of the firm of A. C. Williams & Co. They reside at Kingston.

'10, Klase, May, and Iris Ike-ler attended the Chautauqua Summer School at Chautauqua, N. Y.

'10, Low, Zora. In a pretty and unusual home wedding, by candle light, at 5:30 o'clock in the morning of Friday, November 28th, Miss Low was married to Dr. William P. Gemmil of Wilder, Va. On account of the recent death in the family the wedding was a very quiet one, witnessed only by relatives and intimate friends. The marriage ceremony was performed by the father of the groom, Rev. William Gemmil, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Millville, Pa. They reside at Wilder, Va.

'10, Lewis, Richard, and Laura Hughes '99 were married June 25, at the home of the bride's parents, Hyde Park, Scranton, Pa., by Rev. Charles E. Shelton, pastor of the Plymouth Congregational church. They are at home at 307 N. Summer avenue, Scranton, Pa.

'10, Maxwell, Agnes L., was married, Dec. 19th, to T. Parvin Weiss of Berwick. The marriage was solemnized at the Methodist Episcopal parsonage, Kingston, Pa., by the Rev. Charles Olmstead. The nuptials were very quiet, only the bride's parents being present.

'11, Sharadin, A. J., is physical instructor at the State Normal School, California, Pa.

'11, Wright, Dennis D., is traveling salesman for the White Milling Company of Bloomsburg.

'11, Mather, Bruce, was one of the three men to win prizes at State College, offered by the Penn'a State Millers' Association.

'11, Weiss, William, who was formerly principal at Burnham, Pa., has entered the Carnegie Technical College.

'11, Keeler, Irene, is principal of schools at Vernon, N. J.

'11, Whitmire, Jennie, attended the Summer school at Cornell University last summer.

We clip the following from the Morning Press of Bloomsburg :

"Bloomsburg will be well represented at the Jefferson Medical College, in Philadelphia, this winter. Donald McHenry, '11, J. R. Montgomery, J. R. Brobst and Clyde Peters, all of whom have been at the school for some time, will return to take up their work there, and Kerschner Wagenseller will go with them to enter the college. E. B. Klinetob formerly of town, will also be at the college.

All took their preparatory work in the "Medical Prep." course at the Normal. 'James Corrigan, '11 and Alex. Smith '11, are other Normal graduates in attendance there.

'12, Keiser, Margaret C., is attending Temple College, Philadelphia.

'12, Hartman, Harriet H., pursued this summer a Summer Course at Syracuse University. She secured a Sims Scholarship. She is the assistant principal of the Mifflinville High School.

'12, Houghton, Laura (Commercial Course) was married to William Peacock of Bloomsburg, June 18, 1913. The ceremony was performed at the Eley House, Plymouth, by the Rev. Ben M. Johns, '94, in the presence of only a few relatives and friends. The couple reside in Bloomsburg where Mr. Peacock is connected with the United States Express Company.

'12, Mendenhall, Eva, is principal of schools at Bloomington, N. J.

'12, Womeldorf, Paul, is principal of schools at Burnham, succeeding Wm. Weiss, '11, who resigned to enter the Carnegie Technical College.

'12, Bohlin, Hulda, is teaching at Somerville, N. J., R. D. 2.

'12, Barrett, Genevieve, died at the Burns Private Hospital, Scranton, June 18, 1913. She had undergone an operation for appendicitis and for a time seemed to be recovering finely when pneumonia set in which proved fatal. Her funeral at Pittston was attended by a great concourse of people. A casket bouquet was sent in the name of the class of 1912 of the Normal School.

'13, Evans, Harry S., has charge of the Commercial department in the Kingston High School.

'13, Hess, Charles L., was married, July 2nd, 1913, to Miss Sara Woodworth of Beaumont, Pa.

'13, Funk, Harry, is a freshman in Williams College.

'13, Hetler, Miriam. Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Hetler to Warren Jones (sp. c.) of Scranton.

'13, Powers, Eleanor, is teaching at Bedminister, N. J. She is employed as a teacher of the first four grades. She is very busy and loves her work. She has twenty pupils in a new building which is fully equipped.

'13, Keefer, Myrtle. From the Morning Press, June 30, 1913:

"All last year, a June bride attended classes at the Normal, taught in the Model School, passed State Board and faculty, and graduated only a day or two ago—and nobody was the wiser! Miss Myrtle Keefer, of Sunbury, who was married to the Rev. Harry Brumbach, of Sunbury, in Philadelphia, June 23, 1912, is the bride. The fellow that says a girl can't keep a secret will please feel properly humbled.

Not until the very end of the school year was it even suspected that there was a bride in the class, and even then there were scarcely a dozen Seniors who were in the secret. Had the story gotten into the hands of the students who had the class presentations, there would undoubtedly have been awful happenings on the class night stage, but as it was, the bride escaped.

The groom is a graduate of State, of Dickinson Seminary, and of the Sunbury High School. He was a gridiron star, and captained the team in each of the three institutions from which he graduated."

'13, Nicely, Ruth, is teacher of the Sixth grade in the Market Street School building, Berwick, Pa.

'13, Titman, Frank, has charge of mechanical drawing and manual training in the high school, and penmanship in the grades of the Berwick schools.

'13, Bower, Helen, who left the Normal School before graduation, was married May 17th, to Donald Reese of Berwick. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents by Rev. Cox, pastor of the Bower Memorial United Evangelical Church. The groom is employed in the purchasing department of the A. C. & F. Company. They reside in Berwick.

'13, Shuman, Charles. From the Bloomsburg Daily Sentinel of August 16th:

"Charles Shuman, son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Shuman of Mainville, passed away at his home Saturday morning after four o'clock, from cerebro-spinal meningitis. He had been ill only since Thursday, and from the very inception of sickness it was seen that he was in a serious condition. The deceased was a member of the Bloomsburg State Normal School graduating class of 1913, he having completed the three year course. During this course at the above institution he made many friends on account of his personality and was prominent in school affairs.

Upon the completion of his course he returned home and had been employed upon his father's farm during the summer. This fall he was to take up the serious side of life by starting to teach, and had already secured a school in Mainville. The deceased was 19 years of age last Wednesday, and faced a future of bright prospects. Death, however, in an unexpected form has intervened. He is survived by his father and mother, and one brother, Frank. The funeral will be held on Tuesday."

Very many items in the foregoing may read like ancient history. Many, in fact most, of the notices from '08 inclusive were crowded out of the October QUARTERLY, as were also accounts of some of the County Alumni Associations.

Alumni Associations.

Lackawanna County, Scranton, September 4th. Business meeting was held in High School building. Refreshments were served at Williams' Restaurant. # Quarterly.

"Entered as second-class matter July 1, 1909, at the post office at Bloomsburg, Pa., under the Act of July 16, 1894."

APRIL, 1914

This Normal School is not yet under the State Board of Education. The stock-holders have authorized the sale of the school to the Commonwealth. The board of trustees in pursuance of that action has accepted the terms offered by the State Board of Education.

The treasury of the State Board, however, has not been full enough to pay for all the schools that have been offered. Until another legislature shall appropriate additional funds for the use of the State Board, this school will remain under the control of the present board of trustees. When the transfer shall be completed the school will be in the hands of a board of nine trustees which will perform the duties devolving upon the present board. They will be appointed and removed at pleasure by the State Board of Education. So long as the traditional policy of Pennsylvania in educational affairs shall be maintained, there need be no fear that any radical departure will be made at Bloomsburg, inasmuch as it has always been the aim of the trustees to provide the very best school within their power.

Alumni.

The QUARTERLY desires to hear from all Alumni of the institution. Please consider this a personal invitation to let us know all about yourself and all you can tell us concerning your classmates. Address all communications for this department to G. E. Wilbur, Lock Box No. 203.

Rev. John Hewitt—Principal of the Normal School in 1872-3—has received many flattering proposals for political preferment. Mr. Hewitt is the Grand Prelate of the Grand Commandery, Knights Templar of Pennsylvania. The following recently appeared in a local paper: "Following the booming of the Rev. John Hewitt of Bellefonte for Congress on the Democratic ticket in the twenty-first Congressional District, comes a reply from the well known clergyman that it would be impossible for him to accept the honor.

On all sides his acceptance had been prayed for, for his fitness for the position, and as a Democratic leader, his equal would be hard to find.

The Rev. Mr. Hewitt was a former priest of St. Paul's Parish and has a host of friends in town who are always interested in the great work he is doing, both for Church and the State."

Mrs. M. E. Besse (West), who was at the head of the music department of the school in 1896-99, has recently met with a great sorrow in the death of her husband Dr. Eugene G. West of Orange, N. J. The doctor while attending scarlet fever patients was stricken with the disease in a very malignant form Tuesday, March 24th. He diagnosed his own case and the diagnosis was confirmed by other physicians who were called in. Everything possible was done to check the progress of the malady but without avail. He died Saturday morning, March 28. In the section in which he lived Dr. West had achieved more than ordinary distinction not only as a successful physician but as a public spirited citizen.

The sincere sympathy of a large number of former students and of friends made here are extended to Mrs. West. She has two children, Ralph and Eugene.

Miss Edith Cumberland assistant in Physical Culture at the Normal has been succeeded by Miss Bertha Schools. Miss Cumberland has taken a place as a director of girls' work in her subject in the public schools of New York City. She is working under Dr. A. K. Aldinger, formerly head of the Department of Physical Culture at the Normal School.—Morning Press Feb. 20.

'69, Dietterich, William E., special course, died at his home in Espy, Pa., February 12th of cerebral hemorrhage. He had been ill since the preceding Christmas. For many years he had been conducting a general merchandise store in Espy with a good measure of success. Interment was made in the cemetery at Almedia.

'74, Mears, Dr. Geo. V. and wife (Lucy E. Perkins, '74) have planned a delightful summer tour in Europe. They will sail from Boston April 25 on the steamer Canopic of the White Star line. En route to Naples they will visit the Azores, Gibraltar, Algiers and other Mediterranean ports. They will spend May in Italy traveling to the many places of interest: June in Germany, Switzerland, France and the Netherlands, and July will be spent in England, Ireland and Scotland. They plan to reach New York about August 1.

The trip is planned as a purely pleasurable one, although Dr. Mears will embrace the opportunity to visit and inspect some of the most noted hospitals in Europe. Dr. Mears is located at Fond du Lac, Wis.

'75, Armstrong, John D. (sp. c.) died at his home in Bloomsburg, Pa., March 23rd. He had a paralytic stroke about two years ago and for the greater part of the time since then has been confined to his home. He was for many years a prosperous merchant, conducting a grocery store near the corner of Main and East Sts. He retired from business about five years ago. The body was taken to Muncy, Pa. where interment was made.

'79, App, John H., is connected with the public schools of Akron, Ohio. His address is 25 Atlas Avenue.

'81, Nuss, J. Frank, died at Los Angeles, California, Sunday, February 24th. His death was due undoubtedly, so say those most closely associated with him, to a break down caused by his business activity. The Normal School has lost a staunch, loyal admirer and friend. We take the following from a Bloomsburg paper: "Mr. Nuss had been ill for a year or more from anemia and went west in December hoping that in a milder climate he would recover his health. His wife and daughter accompanied him and were with him at the time of his death. Mr. Nuss was born in Mifflin township about 58 years ago. After graduating from the Normal School he taught for a number of years and about twenty-seven years ago entered the employ of Payne Pettibone at Wyoming. Upon the death of Mr. Pettibone, Mr. Nuss was retained as agent for the Pettibone estate. In 1904 he moved to Wilkes-Barre and engaged in the real estate business for himself. In this venture he was quite successful.

The deceased was a member of the Central M. E. Church of Wilkes-Barre and served on its official board. He bore an excellent reputation, being a man of fine character and high ideals, possessing a host of friends." The body was brought back to Pennsylvania and interred in the beautiful cemetery at Forty Fort, near Kingston, Pa.

'81, Hower, Dr. H. V. of Mifflinville, has gone to Scranton, where he will make his home in the future. Dr. Hower is one of the most widely known and successful physicians in this section. He has a legion of friends who regret to see him leave.

Dr. Hower has accepted a position as specialist in the private hospital of Dr. Thompson. He has spent much time during the past year at the Johns Hopkins University in preparation for his position.

'82, Moore, Rev. Dr. E. J., Superintendent of the Pennsylvania Anti-Saloon League, visited and lectured in Bloomsburg early in March. His wife, formerly Lue M. Crippen, '82, accompanied him. We clip from the Morning Press:

Members of the Class of 1882 of the Normal school gathered at the home of Mrs. S. C. Creasy last evening at a reception in honor of Dr. and Mrs. E. J. Moore, prior to Dr. Moore's temperance lecture at the Methodist Church. Dr. Moore is the only member of the class who married a class-mate. Mrs. Moore was Miss Lue Crippen of Scranton. Members of the class who were present were Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Mercer, Dr. and Mrs. H. Bierman, and Prof. and Mrs. L. P. Sterner. Mrs. Mercer, Dr. Bierman and Mrs. Sterner were members of the class.

'84, Eckbert, (Lupfer) Lottie, is located at Spokane, Wash. Her husband, Alex M. Lupfer is Chief Engineer of the Spokane, Portland and Seattle Railway Company. Their daughter graduated from the Spokane High School and contemplates entering Wellesley this fall. She insists on taking with her a pennant of the school where her mother graduated.

'84, Boone, Josiah (Sp. C.) died at his home in Brooklyn, N. Y., Tuesday morning, February 3rd. The QUARTERLY does not know the particulars of his death. He moved to Brooklyn several years ago, engaged in the real estate business and became very successful. His wife, Miss Sadie Creveling, was a former student of the school, taking a special course. He is survived by his wife and four children.

'85, Laudig, O. O., is now at Battle Creek, Mich. He was compelled to resign his position in India, where he was a successful manager of iron-works—and hasten to this country on account of the serious illness of his infant daughter who had been stricken with cholera. The life of the child was saved and is now reported as a strong, healthy little lady. Mrs. Laudig is a younger sister of Mrs. Florence Hess Cool, '88.

Mr. Laudig's address is 500 Maple St., Battle Creek, Mich.

'89, Scheuhing, John B., died in the Episcopal Hospital, Philadelphia, following an illness of short duration. He was admitted to the hospital suffering from an abscess of the bowels. An operation was performed and to all appearances was a success, but pneumonia developed and death followed this dreaded complication. He died Friday, March 20th, at midnight. The funeral took place the following Wednesday from his late residence, 29th and Huntingdon Sts., Philadelphia, burial was made in Mt. Peace Cemetery of that city.

Mr. Scheuhing taught in the public schools for several years, and then entered the drug business, graduating from the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy. He conducted very successfully a pharmacy at 29th and Huntingdon Sts. The deceased is survived by his widow and three children. A pathetic incident is that his wife was ill at the time of his death and a patient in the same hospital.

'90, Colvin (Lister) Bertha A. Cards have been received announcing the arrival January 29, 1914, of Miss Patricia Louise Lister, at the Lister home, Glenburn, Penna. The little lady was most heartily welcomed and will permanently make her home there.

'91, Smith, Elizabeth, is greatly interested and very active in the securing of funds to rebuild the Church of her choice, which was totally destroyed by fire not long ago at Mt. Carmel, Pa. They are about to publish a cook book. The QUARTERLY does not know much about it. However write to "Bess" 114 West Ave. She'll do the rest.

'93, Traub, Rev. Frank, has now fully recovered from the severe attack of black water fever which nearly caused his death. He and his wife expect to start on May 5th on the return trip to his mission work on the Coast of Liberia, Africa. Mrs. Traub will be the only white woman in the mission school.

'94, Patten, Frank E., who has been the representative in this section for a western flouring mill with headquarters at Scranton, has been transferred by his company to the West. For the present he will make his headquarters at the home office of the company in Minneapolis, Minn., his territory including Southern Minnesota and South Dakota. Later he expects to locate in Sioux Falls. He went to his new field of labors about the 1st of March.

'94, Jenkins, Edward G. (Sp. C.) is located in Honesdale, Pa., and in the busy activities of life finds time to act as Scout Master of Honesdale Troop No. 1, Boy Scouts of America. He maintains a warm interest in "Old Normal," and speaks kindly and graciously of her whenever and wherever he has the opportunity.

'94, Patterson, J. Howard (academic) a well known attorney of Williamsport, Pa., has located in East Liverpool, Ohio. Previous to his departure from Williamsport he was given a testimonial luncheon at the Ross Club of that city. A very enjoyable time is reported.

'95, Traub, Howard J. Our "boys" will "break into" politics—and we presume that 'ere long the "girls," just as at the Normal, will contest with them for the privilege and opportunity of serving their state and country. And why not? At any rate Howard announces himself as a candidate for the nomination for member of the State Assembly. And he hopes, indeed intends to win.

'95, Mensch, Lewis C. (Sp. C.) an attorney at Catawissa, also hears the voice of the people, "throws his hat into the ring," and announces himself as a candidate for the nomination for State Senator in the 24th Senatorial District. The QUARTERLY is interested in the campaigns of our "boys."

'97, Smith, Isabelle, has a position which is considered "perfectly good" in the School of Ethical Culture, New York City. She is finishing her second year in this work.

'98, Styer, George A. A local paper early in March contained the following: "George A. Styer, of this county, who is a senior at the Susquehanna University at Selinsgrove, has won the prize offered by the Conrad Weiser Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution for the best essay on a Revolutionary War subject contested for by the seniors in the University.

'99, Carpenter, Perry A., resigned his position, last June, in Genesee Wesleyan Seminary at Lima, N. Y., after eight years of service as head of the department of Mathematics, and is now teaching Mathematics in the West High School, Rochester, N. Y. The school has some 1300 students, and five teachers who devote full time to Mathematics and two who teach this subject part of the time. His address at present is 1 Arnett St., Rochester, N. Y.

'99, Smith (Guillot) Jennie C., who has been a popular teacher in the Hillard Grove School building, East End, Wilkes-Barre, was married recently in the South Grant Street Presbyterian Church, Wilkes-Barre to Clinton N. Guillot of Bushkill Pa. The nuptial knot being tied by the pastor, Rev. John B. Craven. The event occurred at 7:30 o'clock in the morning. It was a quiet one and the parties were unattended. Immediately after the ceremony they left on an extended wedding trip. They are house keeping in their own home at Bushkill, in the Poconos, where Mr. Guillot owns and conducts one of the largest poultry farms in the state.

'99, Zeigler, Ira A., taught every year after graduation until 1907 when he became physically disabled. He had a cyst removed from the cerebellum after which he lost the power of speech, hearing of the left ear, he could not walk, and became entirely helpless and for three years had to be fed by others and for three years could not write his own name. He was a skilled penman and for eleven years filled out the Normal School diplomas. After being in the U. of P. hospital for two years he was pronounced incurable, and since Thanksgiving Day, 1910, has been in the Philadelphia Home for Incurables. He has improved so much there that the doctors think he may ultimately recover. His many friends hope and pray that this may be so. His present address is 48th Street and Woodland Ave., W. Philadelphia, Pa.

'99, Gold, Guy D., was recently re-elected to the New American Association of the Brockton, Mass. Y. M. C. A. with a very nice increase in salary. Recently he issued a booklet, "The Shoe City Reader," a text-book introducing foreigners to the study of English.

'99, Oler, A. Esther—Sister Mary Clementine—has been studying for the degree of A. B. at the Catholic University of America, Washington, D. C., and hopes to secure this degree this year. Her address is 1038 Newton St., Brookland, D. C.

'00, Kitchen, Lena M., was married Tuesday, April 7th, to John

R. Bateman of Alma, Mich., in the Methodist parsonage at Bedford, Pa., Rev. Geo. W. Faus, pastor of the church and brother-in-law of the bride officiated. The groom is a prosperous farmer and business man of Alma, Michigan, at which place they will make their home. Mrs. Bateman is a graduate also of the Greely, Colorado State Teacher's College, and until recently has been teaching in the schools of Rocky Ford, Colo.

'01, Albert, Keller B. A local paper, January 31, 1914, has the following: "Keller B. Albert of Reading, was united in marriage with Miss Carrie M. Rauch of Baltimore, in that city on Thursday. The ceremony was performed by the former's uncle, Rev. E. K. Bell, pastor of the First English Lutheran Church."

They will reside in Reading, Pa., where Mr. Albert, for the present, is located.

'03, Hagenbuch, Rae I., after a visit of several weeks with his mother, Mrs. Isaiah Hagenbuch and other Bloomsburg relatives left yesterday for his ranch in Northern Nevada. He was accompanied by his brother, J. Clark Hagenbuch. Stopping several days in Chicago they will proceed to their western home, going by train as far as Elco, Nevada. From there they go 55 miles by stage, the balance of the way of about 100 miles by horse back. In June Mr. Hagenbuch will have worked out his claim at which time the title will be transferred by the government. Mr. Hagenbuch at present is in the employ of the government as a forest ranger and his brother accompanied him for the purpose of caring for his ranch. Rowland, located six miles from their ranch is the nearest post office where the mail is delivered once each week.—Morning Press, Jan. 29.

'05, Allen, Bertha, in the office of the assistant post master of Seattle, Wash., writes: "I hope that several of our Normal teachers are planning to take in the Exposition at San Francisco next summer, which of course would include either coming or going by Seattle. Although the city has been developing quite rapidly, everybody is jubilant over the passage of the Alaskan Railroad Bill as with the opening up of Alaska the shipping business will be very greatly increased; the opening of the Panama Canal will also increase trade. Taking it altogether I am sure you would find Seattle a most interesting city. It has quite a metropolitan appearance with its new 41 story building together with the advantages of the lakes, the seashore and nearby mountains."

'05, House (Knittle) Mae B. The last issue of the QUARTERLY gave an account of the happy marriage of Miss House to Mr. John Knittle of Catawissa. It is now our very sad duty to announce her death at the home of her father, Dr. W. H.

Published by the
BLOOMSBURG LITERARY INSTITUTE AND STATE NORMAL SCHOOL, OF THE SIXTH DISTRICT,

House of Normal Hill at three o'clock Friday morning, February 13th, just three hours after she had passed her 27th birthday, which fell on the 12th of February. She was married on the 12th of the preceding November. Mrs. Knittle was ill only a little over a week and her condition had not assumed a serious aspect until a day or two before her death which was caused by intestinal infection. Funeral services were conducted Monday afternoon, February 16th, by Rev. F. O. Musser, Rector of the Episcopal Church, interment in Rosemont Cemetery, Bloomsburg.

'07, Aspiazu, Eusebio (commercial course) has recently become the Private Secretary—Secretariare Particular del Presidente Menocal of Cuba—of the President of Cuba. There is a large salary attached to the position. He is married and is the proud father of a little daughter. His mother, Mrs. Maldina Pradera Ida de Aspiazu, a very pleasant and interesting lady, visited the Normal School about the middle of April and was greatly interested in the scenes of her son's school life and labors.

'07, Bacon, Bertha H. Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Bacon of Philadelphia, Pa., have announced the engagement of their daughter Bertha to Mr. Heber L. Wagner, a rising young business man of Pottsville, Pa.

'09, Eisenhauer, Edward, and Miss Mary Hidlay, '12, (Sp. C.) were married Saturday morning, April 11th, at the Lutheran parsonage, Espy, Pa., the Rev. O. E. Sunday, pastor of the church officiating. Mr. Eisenhauer is a prosperous general merchant of Mifflinville, Col. Co., Pa., where, after an extended wedding trip, they reside.

'09, Steiner, Samuel J. The Bloomsburg Daily Sentinel, Jan. 19, says: "Samuel J. Steiner, a former town boy and a former teacher in the local high school, has opened a Business College at Shamokin. After Mr. Steiner resigned his position at the high school he accepted one at the Lackawanna Business College, Scranton, he then decided to try it himself and purchased the Bliss Business School, as it was then known, and has succeeded very well.

He has over 150 students at the present time and has three teachers under him. He has twenty typewriters in that department and it is necessary to get more. The majority of his students are high school graduates, or those who have nearly completed the course. The school is situated in the May building, corner of Commerce and Shamokin Streets.

'10, McHenry, Georgena. The following reached us through the office of the Normal School wireless. "Arrived via Stork's express at California, Pa., on January 29th, a girl addressed in care of Mr. ('11) and Mrs. A. J. Sharadin.

'10, Andrews, Ethel V., is now living in New York City where she has been studying voice for over a year. She also has a private school. Her address is 629 W. 138th St. care Cole.

'10, Mann, Charles F. Jr., (Coll. Prep.) died of tuberculosis, at the home of his grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira McHenry of Benton, Pa., Sunday night, April 19th. In the death of Mr. Mann, Benton loses one of its most accomplished musicians and a resident, who by his personality and fine qualities endeared himself to a large circle of friends.

During the great fire of 1910, Mr. Mann fell from the roof of a burning building upon which he was standing in an attempt to stay the progress of the flames and received an injury which caused a gradual decline of health which ultimately resulted in his death. Two years ago, the ravages of illness were so serious that he became an invalid, but he took up the duties of his life with courage and despite the seriousness of his condition, still worked at his chosen profession, that of teaching school. A few days ago, he returned to his home to die.

Funeral services were held Wednesday, April 22, Rev. I. W. Burrell officiating, burial in the Benton cemetery.

'11, Megargel, Lavona. We take the following from the Morning Press of March 30th: "A marriage announcement that will come as a big surprise to their many friends in Columbia county is that of Miss Lavona Megargel, daughter of Douglas Megargel of Orangeville, to Horace Richards of Lightstreet, which took place at the Presbyterian Manse at Kingston, February 14th.

The bride has been a very successful teacher at the Orangeville Academy and will complete her school term, following which she will go to Scranton to make her home with her husband, who holds a responsible position with the Delaware and Hudson Railroad Company.

'11, Alexander, Beulah (Sp. C.) was married at the home of her parents, Bloomsburg, Pa., Wednesday, April 8th, to Mr. Benjamin R. Feldser of Lancaster. The wedding took place at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Rabbi Louis Shreiber of Danville, performed the marriage with the beautiful Jewish ceremony. Following an extended bridal tour they will make their residence at 238 Howard Avenue, Lancaster, where the groom is engaged in a successful mercantile business.

'11, Osborne, Annette, was married October 1st, 1913, to Mr. Howard P. Frantz. They are at home, at 241 Bennett St., Luzerne, Pa.

'12, Potts, P. Clive, is a student at the University of Pittsburgh. He is greatly pleased with the institution and is enjoying many excellent privileges. There are over three thousand students in attendance. The University embraces eleven different colleges. He is in the college in the Latin and Modern Language Group, and is continuing also the study of Greek. He resides at 5508 Howe St.

'15, Stathers, Katherine L., withdrew from the school at the close of the Fall term. Her friends were surprised to receive the announcement of her marriage to Mr. William H. Cechman, Saturday, December 20th, at Harrisburg, Pa.

Many of the classes are making arrangements for class re-unions on Tuesday of Commencement Week. Some propose to surpass in numbers and interest anything that has heretofore happened. They will have to move lively. The following classes should hold reunions this year: '74, '75, '84, '89, '94, '99, '04, '09 and '12. Please communicate with Prof. F. H. Jenkins, the Registrar, that adequate preparations may be made. This is essential if you desire the school to furnish banquets. The classes of '89, and '04 will be guests of the school.

The base ball season opened Apr. 4th with Bucknell University at Lewisburg. The showing made by the team was encouraging even though they did return with the short end of a 7-2 score. The material looks promising for a good representative school team.

Our old friend J. Pluvius has played havoc with the early plans of Mgr. Schmaltz by spoiling two home games for April, Gettysburg College and Harrisburg drawing the rain checks.

Philologian Society.

The following officers were elected at the beginning of the Spring term :

President—Charles K. Smith.

Vice Pres.—Margaret Tonry.

Rec. Sec.—Alma Mann.

Asst. Rec. Sec.—Jennie Roberts.

Corres. Sec.—Beatrice Roth.

Registrar—James Curly.

Treas.—Fred Johnson.

Marshal—Glenis Rickert.

Asst. Marshal—Carlton Roberts.

Calliepian Society.

The society has been very successful in its literary work during the past term. Each and every member has been taking an active part. The reunion held Feb. 21, proved to be a success, especially so in the production of Ben Jonson's play, "The Silent Woman." From all appearances the society will surpass its former standard during the coming term.

Y. W. C. A.

The Spring term work begins hopefully with a new cabinet and a number of new members. The election held just before vacation resulted in the selection of the following officers :

President—Mary Brower.

Vice President—Edith Bray.

Secretary—Maud Pannebaker.

Treasurer—Rachel Tubbs.

Third Advisory Member—Miss Hardy.

Annual Examinations

The annual State Board examinations is scheduled for Monday, June 15th, at 9 a. m. If the examiners so desire they may begin on the previous Saturday. Those candidates who need to be examined by the Faculty in order to be recommended to the State Board should present themselves on Tuesday, June 9th, at 9 a. m.

Only Juniors, Seniors and post-graduates will be examined by the State Board.

Certified graduates from 1st Grade High Schools are admitted to the Junior year without examination.

Those from High Schools of the 2nd Grade are admitted to the second year, and those from High Schools of the 3rd Grade are admitted to the first year of the course without examination.

A person who desires to be admitted to the second or the third year without having previously attended an accredited high school, must have a certificate of a commissioned Superintendent of Schools showing that he has passed the branches of the first year or the first and second years, with his standing in those branches, or must pass a satisfactory examination by the Faculty in said branches, or be conditioned in them. But the studies in which any one is conditioned under this rule or any one of the rules above, shall not foot up more than 320 weeks.

Students entering on certificate need not present themselves before Sept. 1st, but should have their applications on file as early as possible in order to secure rooms. Blank forms will be supplied on request.
